

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

David Halterman,

No. C 04-02660 JW

Plaintiff,

ORDER FOLLOWING PRELIMINARY PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

v.

EMC Corporation, et al.,

Defendants.

On November 21, 2005, the Court conducted a preliminary pretrial conference. The Court orders the parties to comply with the following:

A. Meet and Confer Requirement

1. On or before March 22, 2006, the parties shall meet and confer with respect to the Joint Pretrial Conference Statement, submission of a joint list of witnesses, a joint list of trial exhibits and a joint list of discovery material which each party intends to offer in evidence as a part of its case-in-chief. Unless objections are made in accord with this Order, all witnesses, exhibits and discovery material contained on the joint submission shall be deemed admissible into evidence by stipulation.

B. Objections and Lodging Disputed Material with the Court

2. If a party objects to receipt into evidence of a witness, exhibits or discovery response, the party shall advise all opposing parties during the conference and attempt to resolve the dispute. If the parties are unsuccessful in resolving the dispute, any party wishing to object to receipt of the testimony of any witness, any exhibit or discovery response into evidence shall lodge with Chambers a copy of the

1 disputed material on or before March 31, 2006, together with a brief statement of the objection and any
2 response by the proffering party. The Court will indicate on the submitted copy whether the objection is 3 overruled or sustained and return the material to counsel.

4 C. Lodging Joint Pretrial Conference Statement and In Limine Motions

5 3. On or before March 31, 2006, the parties shall file and lodge with Chambers the following:

6 a. Joint Pretrial Conference Statement: The parties shall file a joint pretrial statement
7 which shall contain the following information: (1) a brief description of the substance of 8 each claim which remains to be decided (the description must list the essential elements
9 which the party contends it must prove in order to prevail on each claim); (2) as to each
10 claim, a detailed statement of all the relief requested, particularly itemizing the amount of 11 damages being requested; (3) as to each claim, a description of each defense which is being 12 asserted; (4) a plain and concise statement of any relevant facts not disputed to which the 13 parties stipulate; (5) a list of all fact witnesses likely to be called at trial, other than solely for 14 impeachment or rebuttal; (6) a list of all expert witnesses and the field of expertise in which 15 the witness is tendered as an expert; (7) an estimate of the number of hours needed for the 16 presentation of each party's case; and (8) any other subjects relevant to the trial of the 17 action, or material to its just, speedy and inexpensive determination.

18 Counsel are directed to meet and confer in advance of the date for submission of 19 pretrial material with respect to the pretrial conference statement.

20 b. In Limine Motions: Any In limine motions shall be filed in writing and submitted 21 along with the Joint Final Pretrial Conference Statement. Any opposition shall be filed in 22 writing and served on or before April 21, 2006. These motions will be deemed submitted
23 without oral argument, unless the Court orders otherwise.

24 D. Final Pretrial Conference

25 4. The Court will conduct a Final Pretrial Conference with the parties on May 1, 2006 at 3:00
26 p.m. The trial attorneys must attend the conference. At the final pretrial conference the Court will consider 27 issues raised in the Final Pretrial Conference Statement, motions in limine and discuss the procedures for 28

trial of the case.

E. Lodging Witness Lists, Exhibit Lists and Proposed Jury Instructions

5. On May 16, 2006, the parties shall lodge with Chambers the joint list of witnesses, and a joint list of exhibits. Unless otherwise ordered, all exhibits shall be in a format compatible with either the video or digital evidence presentation system utilized by the Court. The proffering party shall retain custody of all exhibits, schedules, summaries, diagrams or charts to be used at the trial.

6. Upon request, in noncomplex cases the Court will excuse the parties from using electronic formatted documents. In that event on the first day of trial, the parties shall submit exhibits as follows:

a. A copy for the trial judge;

b. A copy for the witness stand. The Court prefers the parties to prepare a binder for each witness, which contains only those documents pertinent to that witness.

c. No duplicates of a document shall be submitted, unless the duplicate copy has independent evidentiary value to prove some disputed issue of material fact (e.g., date stamp to prove receipt on a particular date, where date of receipt is a disputed issue of a material fact).

7. At the Final Pretrial Conference, the parties shall submit proposed jury instructions and verdict forms on both hard copy and disk format. The Court will give the preliminary instructions contained in the Model Jury Instructions of the Ninth Circuit at the beginning of the trial and will give the standard closing instructions Model Jury Instructions of the Ninth Circuit prior to closing argument. The parties need not submit preliminary or introductory closing instructions, unless they wish the Court to consider giving a particular instruction.

8. If the parties are unable to agree on a particular substantive instruction, the set of instructions submitted by the parties shall contain each party's version of the contested instruction containing a citation of authority for the instruction.

F. Proposed Findings (Nonjury Trials)

9. In nonjury trials, on the first day of trial, each party shall submit its proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

G. Trial Schedule

1 10. Pursuant to stipulation, the trial schedule for this case will be as follows: May 17, 18, 19,
2 23, 24, 25, 30 and June 2, 6, 7, 8, 9, 13 from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

3 11. The time allowed for trial shall be divided equally between the plaintiff's side and the 4 defendant's side. Co-parties are ordered to meet, confer and agree to an allocation among themselves. A
5 party may spend its allocated time presenting its own case or on cross-examination of witnesses called by 6 other parties or for presentation of a counterclaim. When a party's allocated time period has expired,
7 unless otherwise ordered for good cause shown, no further time will be allowed to that party if it would
8 interfere with the ability of the opposing party to present its case.
